

The mission of Mount Saint Joseph Conference and Retreat

Center is to offer and host programs in a rural environment of tranquility for people of all ages and faiths to nurture spiritual and personal growth, advance the arts, and promote lifelong learning. Established in 1983 as a corporate ministry of the Ursuline Sisters of Mount Saint Joseph, the Center is situated on a beautiful 750-acre rural campus in Maple Mount, Ky., on the grounds of the Ursuline Motherhouse.

- Large and small meeting rooms
- Gymnasium
- 120-seat capacity dining room with home-cooked meals
- Private chapel
- Gift shop
- Exquisite grounds, ideal for reflection or recreational activities
- Lake-front picnic facilities

The original Mount Saint Joseph Academy building was built in 1874 and was the first building on the Ursuline Sisters' Motherhouse campus. Today it is part of Mount Saint Joseph Conference and Retreat Center.

Mount Saint Joseph Conference and Retreat Center serves western Kentucky and surrounding areas by providing a wide variety of programs as well as meeting space. It is also the Office for Spiritual Life for the Diocese of Owensboro, Ky.

Open to persons of all ages and faiths, the Center continues the spirit of the educational ministry of the former Mount Saint Joseph Academy.

The Center is a sponsored ministry of the Ursuline Sisters of Mount Saint Joseph, who came to Maple Mount from Louisville, Ky., to found Mount Saint Joseph Academy in 1874. The Academy was in operation until 1983. The former Academy buildings, renovated in 1983 and again in 1996, provide a restful setting and accommodations in a peaceful atmosphere.

“The first part of the session helped me so much spiritually. There are no words to express it. Being with the Ursuline Sisters at Mount Saint Joseph made the training special. The Mount is such a holy place.”

- Martha Little who received Spiritual Direction certification at the Center in 2006

PLEASE NOTE: Mount Saint Joseph Conference and Retreat Center is a nonsmoking facility. Thank you for your consideration and cooperation.
